NORTH COUNTRY CISMA

CITY OF LUDINGTON

INVASIVE SPECIES WORKSHOP

A focus on:

- Invasive Knotweed
- Invasive Bittersweet
- Tree of Heaven

In the City of Ludington

THU, MAY 08, 2025
6:00 PM - 08:30 PM

Invasive Species Q&A

The public is invited to come and learn about invasive species in the City of Ludington. Invasive species professionals will give a big picture presentation, followed by break out sessions on specific topics. Guests will have an opportunity to ask questions and discover resources throughout the event. No registration or fee is required to attend.

FREE EVENT!

Presentations:

2025 Management Plan

Learn about 2024 survey results and future plans to address invasive species in the city.

Property Owner Resources

Presentation on effective control. Plus info on cost share programs and local contractors.

Invasive Species ID Walk

Presentation and 1/2 mile walk to show how to identify key invasive species.

Do it Yourself Herbicides

Learn safe handling practices and legal restrictions for using herbicide on your property.

Contact us
+231-577-9479

Event Location: Harbor View Marina
400 S. Rath Ave., Ludington, MI 49431